

Mama Cry

YNW Melly

I'm sorry, won't right my wrongs
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
I'll just call sometime, I'll be home soon
It won't be long, I promise
I will be okay, just wipe those
Tears off of your face, I'm sorry
I won't right my wrongs, I'm guilty
Lord have mercy, please forgive me
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
One hundred and forty-five days, I'm counting
Tryna hold on but the time goes slowly
Two hundred and twenty-five ice cold showers
Hurricane hurt my cell, ain't get no power
Tryna walk a narrow straight path is a battle
Kinda hard to walk when you're chained in shackles
My soul bleeds through these four walls
My heart aches after phone calls
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
I'll just call sometime, I'll be home soon
It won't be long, I promise
I will be okay, just wipe those
Tears off of your face, I'm sorry
I won't right my wrongs, I'm guilty
Lord have mercy, please forgive me
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
Give you my heart, it's filled with pain, give me my freedom
Take off these shackles, they hurt my hands, let me go home
Cold shower, cold bath, cold food, cold slab
Only makes a cold heart
Cold shower, cold slab, cold food, cold bath
Only makes a cold
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
I'll just call sometime, I'll be home soon
It won't be long, I promise
I will be okay, just wipe those
Tears off of your face, I'm sorry
I won't right my wrongs, I'm guilty
Lord have mercy, please forgive me
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
Mama please don't you cry, I'm sorry
Barbed wire
Best friend became the barbed wire
Chains broken by the barbed wire (barbed wire)
Tears dropping from the barbed wire (barbed wire)
Cold shower, cold slab, cold food, cold bath
