

Break the News

Dreezy

You see the problem that I've been drinking
Don't know if my dude comin' through
But baby can light it I been thinking
I can get a room witchu
And baby we could get lost right now
I'll tell him its a girl's night out
And I know I said it was done so how
You got me leaving this voicemail now It's reservations for
Roll one, no one make me bad
Ain't no rough sheets, never had
I gave you it all and I know that I'm wrong
It's just so hard for me to choose
I know you thinkin' like
Yeah yeah yeah
I always turn my back to you
Yeah yeah yeah
And then I'm running back to you
I don't want to have to be the one to break the news
I know I take it way too far
And we've been a lot of places baby
Nothing was as good as us when we got along
Not even when he touch me
I still miss how you hold me
Damn
I wish I could figure out a way to have the best of both It's reservations for
Roll one, no one make me bad
Ain't no rough sheets, never had9
I gave you it all and I know that I'm wrong
It's just so hard for me to choose
I know you thinkin' like
Yeah yeah yeah
I always turn my back to you
Yeah yeah yeah
And then I'm running back to you
I don't want to have to be the one to break the news
Uh
Who you fucking on when its not me
Stilettos stepping on rose petals that you never bought me
I know the real you, not the ID
Well now the IG, but you know we're on it
But you in the picture that I remember every year I was witchu
Don't know how I'm feeling

Gotta beat the liquor
Three years felt like forever
But soon turned into never
He could treat me better but you get me wetter
I don't wanna be the one who gets to tell him
That's why I really thought we should talk
I'd be waiting there when you off
And the way its looking
We'll be doing this until we get caughtIt's reservations for
Roll one, no one make me bad
Ain't no rough sheets, never had
I gave you it all and I know that I'm wrong
It's just so hard for me to choose
I know you thinkin' like
Yeah yeah yeah
I always turn my back to you
Yeah yeah yeah
And then I'm running back to you
I don't want to have to be the one to break the newsIt's reservations for
Roll one, no one make me bad
Ain't no rough sheets, never had
I gave you it all and I know that I'm wrong
It's just so hard for me to choose
I know you thinkin' like
Yeah yeah yeah
I always turn my back to you
Yeah yeah yeah
And then I'm running back to you
I don't want to have to be the one to break the news.
