

The Runaround

Taylor Hicks

It's a whole new education
I'm learning from you all the time
There's no need for explanation
Your examples do just fine I'm getting an A in Broken Hearts
I got my degree in Crying You tell me, "It's not fair,"
but I am so gone
Oh, I loved you
Why'd you do me so wrong? And to think I sat there Singing you a love song
I'd give you everything
All I get from you is your runaround
You don't like these accusations but I have seen with my own eyes the compromising situations as you walk around in your disguise And I ached at Broken Hearts I got my degree in Crying You tell me, "It's not fair,"
but I am so gone
Oh, I loved you
singing you a love song
Oh, I'd give you everything
All I get from you is your runaround I ached at Broken Hearts
I got my degree in Crying You tell me "It's not fair,"
but I am so gone
Oh, I loved you
singing you a love song
I'd give you everything
All I get from you is your runaround ooh yeah no more lovin' on the run no more just having fun ooh, ooh, yeah, yeah
