

High School Reunion

SAINT JHN

[Intro]

We came too close to the edge now
We almost died last night
This champagne laced in regret now, I relapse every time
Your heart too hard to protect now, it hurts to watch you cry
My feelings mixed up right now

[Chorus]

She never let me see her doing drugs
She knows all the bottle girls in clubs
Good girls always got a thing for the thugs
If I break up then I sick of fallin' in love
I'm sick of my heart broken, I'm scared of fuckin' it up
Sleep with my eyes open, I'm scared of callin' it love
I'm scared of overdosin', I'm scared of fallin' in love
Done with my emotion

[Verse]

Ain't no going backwards, only going forward
I thought we were buildin', why you put your wall up?
Life in a limo, smile so your skin glows
Stunnin' in a window, posted with the armor
I can see things clear, when you're fallin'
Want you in the night time, 'til the morning
I need a lifeline, you could call it
Only if you love me, not stallin'

[Chorus]

She never let me see her doing drugs
She knows all the bottle girls in clubs
Good girls always got a thing for the thugs
If I break up then I sick of fallin' in love
I'm sick of my heart broken, I'm scared of fuckin' it up
Sleep with my eyes open, I'm scared of callin' it love
I'm scared of overdosin', I'm scared of fallin' in love
Done with my emotion

[Refrain]

This is not supposed to hurt this much
Never know you know you're worth this much
'Cause its not supposed to hurt this much
Love is not supposed to hurt this much
'Cause its not supposed to hurt this much
Never know you know you're worth this much

But it's not supposed to hurt this much
Love is not supposed to hurt this much
[Outro]

We came too close to the edge now
We almost died last night
This champagne laced in regret now, I relapse every time
Your heart too hard to protect now, it hurts to watch you cry
My feelings mixed up right now
