

Epiphany

Just Like Vinyl

I've been awake all night
Watching you sleep so tight

I've been waiting
All afraid
I don't know why you insist on wasting my time again

I've been awake all night
Watching you sleep so tight

I was waiting
All afraid
But I can see that you insist on breaking my will again

When morning comes you'll leave again
A flicker in my mind
Tomorrow's betrayal
(She'll get you... She'll get you)
Figure out your task ? and speak your piece of mind
'Cause you're out of time
And out of Line

Watch me fade away
Watch me fade away
(I don't accept or care for your spite)
Watch me fade away
Watch me fade away
(I told you miss, I know what's right)

Watch me fade away!
Watch me fade away!
Watch me fade away!
Watch me fade away!

I've been awake all night
Watching you sleep so tight

I'm not waiting
All afraid
(We'll get you... we'll get you...)
Cuz I can see that you're not worth it breaking my heart again.

I'm a flicker in your mind
(Shoulda ran away... Shoulda ran away)
Tomorrow's a better day
(We'll get you... we'll get you)
Take the time to realize that you're not breaking me

And fade away
(fade away)
fade away
(fade away)
