

My, Oh My

The Wreckers

[Verse 1]

This concrete road used to just be dirt
We'd drive out here after work
Every Friday night when I was eighteen
This parking lot used to be a field
I parked here in my Oldsmobile
Long before the Sonic and the Walgreens

[Pre-Chorus]

Not no more

Not no more

[Chorus]

My, oh my

Look how the time flies

Look how the world changes in the blink of an eye

My, oh my

Look how the years have flown

Turning around before you know it

Up and gone

Oh my, oh my, oh my

[Verse 2]

Times have changed and so have I
I once was young and starry-eyed
Now I have these bittersweet memories
Songs were long and gas was cheap
No cell phones and water was free
Daddy paid and I never had to worry

[Pre-Chorus]

Not no more

Not no more

[Chorus]

My, oh my

Look how the time flies

Look how the world changes in the blink of an eye

My, oh my

Look how the years have flown

Turning around before you know it

Up and gone

Oh my, oh my, oh my

Oh my, oh my, my, my

[Instrumental Break]

[Pre-Chorus]

Not no more
Not no more
Not no more

[Chorus]

My, oh my
Look how the time flies
Look how the world changes in the blink of an eye
My, oh my
Look how the years have flown
Turning around before you know it
Up and gone
Oh my, oh my, oh my
Oh my, oh my, oh my
Oh my, oh my, oh my
