

Love & Sex, Pt. 2 (feat. Kelly Rowland)

Joe

I must confess I've had my share of girls in my lifetime (in my lifetime)
I've been around yeah
Honestly I've been known to wound this ...
But I'm older now (I'm older now),
And maybe I should slow it down!
But I'm not gonna lie and say
That I don't love the way it feels,
When I'm doing my things (my things)
(Said it feels so good)
Said it feels so good to me
But something's missing when it's only us
But the sure thing (ooh uh)
But baby I've learned that
There's a difference between love and sex
But can I have both of them with you, baby?
Yes it is!
There's a difference between love and sex
But can I have both of them with you? Seems nowadays the heart is far removed from the bedroom
The sex is not emotional!
The only focus is the physical
Well there's another level we can achieve
Yeah
We open up to something different
I'm not gonna lie and say
That I don't love the way it feels,
When I'm doing my things, baby
(Said it feels so good)
Said it feels so good to me
But something's missing when it's only us
But the sure thing (ooh uh)
And baby I've learned that There's a difference between lust and sex
Yeah
But can I have both of them with you? Oh baby
There's a difference between love and sex
But can I have both of them with you? Good sex can really blow your mind? But love can ease it for you Good sex could make a wonderful life
If we bring them all together Then we'll be making love
Oh uh yeah yea mmmm yeah oh yea yea
Oh yeah ummm
Can I have both of them with you? There's a difference between love and sex
Yeah

But can I have both of them with you
When it comes to having sex
Love and sex yeah
With you
Ahh
There's a difference between love and sex
But can I have both of them with you?
There's a difference between lust and sex
But can I have both of them with you?
