

Rise Above This

Seether

Take the light
And darken everything around me
Call the clouds
And listen closely, I'm lost without you
Call your name every day
When I feel so helpless
I've fallen down
But I'll rise above this, rise above this
Hate the mind
Regrets are better left unspoken
For all we know
This void will grow and
Everything's in vain
Distressing you though it leaves me open
Feels so right
That I'll end this all before it gets me
Call your name every day
When I feel so helpless
I've fallen down (Fallen down)
Call your name every day
When I seem so helpless
I've fallen down (Fallen down)
But I'll rise above this
Rise above this doubt
I'll mend myself before it gets me
(I'll mend myself before it gets me)
I'll mend myself before it gets me
(I'll mend myself before it gets me)
Call your name every day
When I feel so helpless
I've fallen down (Fallen down)
Forty eight ways to say
That I'm feelin' helpless
Fallen down (Fallen down)
And I'll rise above this
Rise above this doubt
