Hey little girl, where's your man
He's always on the phone
Making deals and selling all his ideas
Would you agree that he's worth it
Can you say exactly what you'd pay

He's unavailable to you now
He's unavailable to you now

He's always just out of reach
And didn't miss the sentences
I'm sorry, but who are you
He's stepping out for a while

He's unavailable to you now
He's unavailable to you now

I don't know, baby, if I can
Provide like he do
But I do know one thing's for sure

I'll be round while you wait
While he's shooting off his mouth
