

Sometimes

Angie Stone

Oh oh. sometimes The way I love too much and I give too much and ya
take so much
til I
ain't got nothin'
And your energy
how it weighs on me
steady
drainin' me
until I'm empty Wantin' better days
and all your crazy ways am I lovin' you in vain? Somebody to help me I don't need negativity
I just need some clarity (sometimes I wanna love you) ooh ooh ooh Sometimes
I wanna hate you
sometimes I wanna
grab you and pull you close and tell you I love you then push you away
oh oh oh boy
I wanna
love you
and sometimes I wanna
fight you
and God knows that it ain't right to
I tell you I'm leavin' and then I say oh oh sometimes
Now I give my all
every time you fall
I'm right there whenever you need me That's when I'm positive
you're insensitive
and just
knowing this
I'm uneasy
Don't appreciate
sacrifice I made
money that
I threw away

not a dime on me
but all I see
is negativity
I think I'm getting clarity Am I asking too much?
When I need for you to hold me just to make me feel better Am I asking too much?
When I'm asking for the little things you do to bring me laughter
Am I asking too much?
I can't wait another minute
'cause I'm runnin' on empty When I long for your touch your touch, your touch, your touch, your touch (sometimes I wanna love you ) Sometimes I wanna
hate you
sometimes I wanna
oh oh oh boy I wanna
love you
and sometimes I wanna
fight you (I wanna fight ya right now ...oh oh oh oh oh... I wanna make ya leave)
and God knows that it ain't
I tell you I'm leavin' and then I say
oh oh sometimes Make you leave... Far to believe...
I wanna stretch my arms and I fall to my knees that's when the heavens open up and pour a blessing on me... Sometimes sometimes oh you make me so mad sometimes I wanna love you I wanna love you Sometimes I wanna hate you, sometimes I wanna grab you and pull you close and tell you I love you then push you away, oh oh oh boy I wanna love you, sometimes I wanna fight (fight ya right now) you and God knows that it ain't right to I tell you one minute and then I say oh oh sometimes
