

Human

Darren Criss

I feel like a loser
I feel like I'm lost
I feel like I'm not sure
If I feel anything at all But believe me
I'm not helpless
I just need someone to love
So my situation's rough That just makes me a dumb human
Like you. I feel like a shortstop
Along third base
I may just help you but
I still don't like your face
But believe me
I'm not hostile
I just want to hear you laugh
When I'm sarcastic like that And that just makes me a dumb human Like you. Why... do I have this
Incredible need to stand up and say
Please pay attention? It's the last thing that I need to Make myself see well
That ain't my intention
No... I feel like an artist
Who's lost his touch
He likes himself in his art
But not his art too much
But believe me
I've got something
I just don't know how to say
That I'm just fine with the way
With the way that I'm moving But that just makes me a dumb human
That just makes me
That makes me a human like you...
