

Necro

Caroline's Spine

I'm a necropheliac and i'm alright
I work it all day, sleep it all night
I'm a necrophiliac looking for reaction
My deviance lies at the core of attraction

I'm a necropheliac close your eyes
No more laughter, no more cries
I'm a necropheliac check your head
I'm lovin' you live, loving' you dead

Will you marry me? no i don't think so
I know you want my insides out
I know you need my insides out
I know you want me

I'm a hapheliac i need to be touched
Like it gentle, like it rough
I'm a coprophiliac and so kind
I'll take whatever you leave behind
I'm a hypoxiphiliac i need alittle freedom
To think about you when i should be breathing
I'm an agorophiliac i need my ground
Won't tie you up or lock you down

Then she sipped a round of you
Then she said, "i seem so helpless."
"yes."
Then she slipped our of view
Slipped out of you

I'm a necropheliac and i'm alright
I work it all day then i sleep it off
I'm a necrophiliac looking for reaction
Deviance lies...

Will you marry me? no, i don't think so
I know you want me insides out
I know you need my insides out

I know you want me
