

Bring Me the Moon

Iris Lune

Build me a house in the ocean
I'll come every spring
Between the codfish and the whales
Who knows what time might bring Pave me a way through the waves
Towards the crystallizing sun
And when you visit me
We can go for a run If you bring me the moon, darling
I'll sing you the sky
Bring me the Lune, dear
I dare you to try
I'll paint it with shades of sunset
Leave the darkness out the door
The clouds will be my rooftop
And ripples at my floor If you bring me the moon, darling
I'll sing you the sky
Bring me the Lune, dear
I dare you to try You don't believe in magic, do you?
It'll keep you safe and warm
You cannot look for Isis*
When you're grounded down with stones
If you bring me the moon, darling
I'll sing you the sky
Bring me the Lune, dear
I dare you to try
