

Ocean

Lady Antebellum

How can someone stand so damn close
'N' feel like they're world away?
I can see your?sad?story eyesSo how?do you have no words to?say?All I want is to fall in deeper than I've ever been
Why won't you let me?
I can handle your heart, so help me
Here you are, next to meSo much beauty at my feet
All I wanna do is swim, but the waves keep crashin' in
No, I'm not afraid to drown
Take me out, take me downI'm so tired of the shore
Let me in, baby
You're an ocean, beautiful, and blue
I wanna swim in you
Like a lighthouse I've been shinin' bright
Through the dark for the both of us
'N' "I've done it outta love" is not enough
But God, how I wish it wasAnd I don't wanna find out
How much lonely I can take before you lose me
Baby, look at me and swear you won't lose me
Here you are, next to meSo much beauty at my feet
All I wanna do is swim, but the waves keep crashin' in
No, I'm not afraid to drown
Take me out, take me downI'm so tired of the shore
Let me in, baby
You're an ocean, beautiful, and blue
I wanna swim in you
I can't let it go for months in your arms
But they come back againThe waves, the wave
The waves, the waves
The waves, the waves
The waves, the wavesHere you are, next to me
So much beauty at my feet
All I wanna do is swim, but the waves keep crashin' inNo, I'm not afraid to drown
Take me out, take me downI'm so tired of the shore
Let me in, baby
You're an ocean, beautiful, and blue
I wanna swim in you
