

Selling Me Sympathy

Bob Moses

Have faith in us
I know you wanted more
Is faith enough?
Don't say too much
I've heard it all before
Say what you must

Lies so cold and sorrow sweet
Still you're selling me sympathy
Bought your story but now I see
All you ever wanted was a piece of me

A fool to follow, a lie to lead
Words I swallow down sicken me
You're not giving me what I need
Cause all you ever wanted was a piece of me

I'm waking up
And still you offer more
It's not enough
My faith is gone
With all you've said and done
I know too much

Lies so cold and sorrow sweet
Still you're selling me sympathy
Bought your story but now I see
All you ever wanted was a piece of me

A fool to follow, a lie to lead
Words I swallow down sicken me
You're not giving me what I need
Cause all you ever wanted was a piece of me

I'm waking up
And still you offer more
It's not enough
My faith is gone
With all you've said and done
I know too much

Lies so cold and sorrow sweet

Still you're selling me sympathy
Bought your story but now I see
All you ever wanted was a piece of me

Lies so cold and sorrow sweet
Still you're selling me sympathy
Bought your story but now I see
All you ever wanted was a piece of me

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>