

City of Dreams (feat. Clipse, Kobe & Kobe)

Travis Barker

the call . the way to view my life 20 cylinders is more for any . pipe fuck every bitch worthy in the east coast twice call the badders a whore and one to turn? triple beans in nipple rings this thins is fantasy when you're a king eat life from the palm of my hands we came out winners from the villagers dance welcome to the city where anything is possible american dream overcome many obstacles rainbow . just may lead you to a protocol chain so chilly i believe that i'm gonna caught a cold but the flow nothing to sneeze at de colors all up in my ear like is? know . through with the .
never mind the price in the change .
chorus
welcome to the city of dreams
when you never have to wake up from a nightmare so you better pack heavy
so you better be ready i am living life at a fast pace who said both running in a faster race break a deal? the master? we order sushi sucking on Edamame dance with an girlfriend i am in heaven mammy she is fairytale i sell fairy dust let the bitch dream i've been fair enough i am drop dead in a drop head we can . in the trunk that's what i said gotta . for my soul that's what bob said i think? for somebody . with every fact noted in the . city? chorus time is running out on you niggers the clock is ticking
. the plot thickens you all heard we fly with the bird we caught chickens. the top is missing . to the window i throw it out . like the lakers haters you all want . beef i serve the odb and i can't be touched by none of you i got ocd and i am nice with the kids too see we play the scale get the grips of?

i got the . something don't seat well . i fuck bad bitches like . but i? you niggers best believe?chorus
