

Needy Girl

Chromeo

Wanna be by yourself and no one else, alright
Al-al-al-al-alright
And you wanna go out, wanna scream and shout tonight
To-to-to-to-tonight
You want some space, like get out of my face, alright
Al-al-al-al-alright
And you want me back, put your life on track tonight
To-to-to-to-tonight

[Chorus]
You're a needy girl
I can tell when I look in your big brown eyes
You want my world
But how can I do yours if I can't do mine?
I try to change
But somehow I always feel I don't feel the same
It's all about what you want, what you say
How you feel, how you play the game
You're a needy girl and you want my world
I try to change, but it is not the same

Hello? Hey what's up baby
Yeah, I'm in the studio right now, I'll call you later
Nah, I really can't talk right now
I'll just call you back, alright?
I can't talk right now, I'll just call you later
Yo, what? Yo, I can't, look
Yo, whatever

When you're home alone, you don't answer the phone, alright
Al-al-al-al-alright
But it's like a crime if I don't answer mine tonight
To-to-to-to-tonight
You say you've found a man, and he's more than a friend, alright
Al-al-al-al-alright
But you still call me for TLC tonight
To-to-to-to-tonight

[Chorus]
