

To the End

My Chemical Romance

[Verse 1]

He calls the mansion, not a house, but a tomb
He's always choking from the stench and the fume
The wedding party all collapsed in the room
So send my resignation to the bride and the groom
Let's go down!
This elevator only goes up to ten
He's not around, he's always looking at men
Down by the pool, he doesn't have many friends
As they are face down and bloated, snap a shot with the lens

[Pre-Chorus]

If you marry me, would you bury me?
Would you carry me to the end?

[Chorus]

So, say goodbye to the vows you take
And say goodbye to the life you make
And say goodbye to the heart you break
And all the cyanide you drank

[Post-Chorus]

Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa

[Verse 2]

She keeps a picture of the body she lends
Got nasty blisters from the money she spends
She's got a life of her own and it shows by the Benz
She drives at 90 by the Barbie's and Ken's
If you ever say never, too late
I'll forget all the diamonds you ate
Lost in coma and covered in cake
Increase the medication, share the vows at the wake, kiss the bride

[Pre-Chorus]

If you marry me, would you bury me?
Would you carry me to the end?

[Chorus]

So, say goodbye to the vows you take

And say goodbye to the life you make
And say goodbye to the heart you break
And all the cyanide you drank
And say goodbye to the last parade
And walk away from the choice you made
And say goodnight to the heart you break
And all the cyanide you drank

[Guitar Solo]

[Post-Chorus]

Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa

[Chorus]

So, say goodbye to the vows you take
And say goodbye to the life you make
And say goodbye to the heart you break
And all the cyanide you drank
And say goodbye to the last parade
And walk away from the choice you made
And say goodnight to the heart you break
And all the cyanide you drank

[Outro]

Woah, to the last parade
Woah, as the parties fade
Woah, and the choice you made
To the end...
