

Your Heart

RaeLynn

Are you gonna curse?
Are you gonna cry?
Are you gonna air your dirty laundry
On a Saturday night? Are you gonna call your friends, sing karaoke?
Gonna sit at home all sad and lonely?
Lookin' like hell, 'cause your mascara's runnin'?
Are you gonna cut your hair and dye it blonde?
Turn off your phone, turn up the song
Look in the mirror and feel like your nothing?
You think you know
You think you know
You think you know who you are
In somebody's arms
But you don't know
No, you don't know
Yeah, you don't know who you are
'Til somebody breaks your heart Ha-ha-ha-ha-heart Are you gonna get mad?
Are you gonna get even?
Or are you gonna find
Something bigger than you to believe in? Are you gonna stuff your face inside a pillow?
Gonna hang your head outside a window?
Feel a brand new day kissing your cheek
It's okay if you wanna hit rock bottom
Slip once or twice and call him
All I know is if you're anything like me
You think you know
You think you know
You think you know who you are
In somebody's arms
But you don't know
No, you don't know
Yeah, you don't know who you are
'Til somebody breaks your heart Ha-ha-ha-ha-heart
'Til somebody breaks your heart
Ha-ha-ha-ha-heart 'Til somebody breaks your heart
You can wave it like a flag
Or a scarlet letter
It could make you bitter
Or make you better You think you know
You think you know
You think you know who you are
In somebody's arms

But you don't knowNo, you don't know
Yeah, you don't know who you are
'Til somebody breaks
You think you know
You think you know
You think you know who you are
In somebody's arms
But you don't knowNo, you don't know
Yeah, you don't know who you are
'Til somebody breaks your heartHa-ha-ha-ha-heart
'Til somebody breaks your heart
