

The Cry (feat. Mario)

Tory Lanez

[Tory Lanez:]

You curved the fuck out of me baby
Some nerve, you ducked out on me baby
Shot my shit down with 3 AK's
Give no fucks, none for me baby
Hol' up
Give no fucks, none for me, baby
All this shit not for free, baby
All this you got from me, baby
And I'm keeping it G, baby
Gotta replay you how you played me, baby
Gotta repay you how you payed me, baby
I can't be thankful, somebody wanna be faithful
All of a sudden you say you hear my heart
Knowing it's lies, baby I see in your eyes, baby
You cheatin me and know you seen this shit from the start
Was loving you hard, I see the love come with scars, but I can-

Hear your heart, it's crying out for me
And if it tears apart,
Take my worst flaw that's on it
You should've never doubted
Now you can't live without me
You should've never doubted
Now you can't live without me

[Mario:]

(Mario)

I see the way you looking like that
Ain't no need to hold it back
I'ma be the one to listen, take you higher than you ever been Baby, don't make me wait for nothing
'Cause girl I promise you gon' love it
And when you're wet, you can't say you don't want it
Every girl that's in here, I could have
That
But what's between me and you, we can't hide that You're too bad to be playing, this a hijack
'Cause I could, I could hear you calling
I can hear your heart, it's crying out
I can hear your heart, it's crying out
I can hear your heart, it's crying out

It's crying out for me, yeah
I know that sound is coming from you
It's trying to tell me what to do
I know that sound is coming from you
It's trying to tell me what to do
But I can-

[Tory Lanez:]

Hear your heart, it's crying out for me
And if it tears apart,
Take my worst flaw that's on it
You should've never doubted
Now you can't live without me
You should've never doubted
Now you can't live without me

[Mario:]

Baby, I won't lie to myself
And you can't deny what you felt
I know you miss riding with me top down, everywhere around town
Now you're crying out for me
'Cause I hit it right, the way you like that
You made your mind, I changed it right back, yeah
If you could do better, then you would do better
You know I'm sexy, intelligent or whatever

[Tory Lanez:]

You wanted new shoes and a beemer
Back in the day we were the two that would team up, Martin and Gina
You know the truth, but you seen a
Few how you do, and I see your point of view and I need to
I want no sleep over this, no
Got me jumping out the window, 45th floor
Moods that you give me, babe
Things that I did to you, you get me back
And I need more to love you
I've been praying that some peace gonna come through
How you gon' be my enemy when I love you?
You know I need your energy when you come through
You know I found love when I seen you
Seen you with something that I never seen before but I [?]
Be sure you was all up on my marina
Demeanor scale of 1 to 1015
Shawty got game, front row, full season
Fuck with a nigga head, no good reason
Dress real spiffy anytime it's pool season
Shawty get a kick out of fucking them and leaving
You want a nigga that appreciates you

Have him rolling then you go and put your skates up

[Mario:]

I love you more than they could ever love you
Appreciate a nigga, make me wanna do something
Every time I hear your heart
Girl I'ma show you what you came back to me for
