

You Lit My Fire

Ane Brun

I will never ever
I will never ever forget They changed our game
I want to kiss the feet of all those women
Spray my body in gold
Engrave myself with their names
Stand tall in awe to the freedom that they gave, to us and never ever forget
No, I will never ever forget
Now, we are all alone
Now, we are all alone in that And nothing can hold me back
You're litting my fire We take their struggle for granted
We are blinded
By this taste of power forsaking our sisters an brothers Oh, this fight goes on for the freedom that we can't give up And never ever forget
No, I will never ever forget
Now, we are all alone
Now, we are all alone in that
And nothing can hold me back
Oh, you're litting my fire
And nothing can hold me back
Oh, you're litting my fire
(Say, you're litting my fire)
And nothing can hold me back
Oh, you're litting my fire
(Nothing can hold me back)
(Nothing can hold me back)
(Oh, you're litting my fire)
And nothing can hold me back
Oh, you're litting my fire
(Oh, you're litting my fire)
(repeat)
