

Taint

Dirty Heads

[Verse 1: Dirty J]

Well it's the two baddest, long-haired, motherfuckers right here
People call us dirtbags, and you know that we just don't care
If you relate to this statement, let me see your hands
'Cause people hate on these things that they don't understand
Supposedly, yes, we're all created equal
Then why the fuck is there so many angry people
Like my fans and the industry, they've both got their complaints
Now I'm stuck between an asshole and a dick just like a taint
A smile and a screw face
A rock and a hard place
A dream and reality
Which one would you chase?
So if you're listenin'
Your definition of
The Dirty Heads are here
It's the beginning of

[Chorus: Dirty J & Duddy B]

We are the last sons
Past generations
Left it to us to, resonate
Reggae and hip-hop
Dance hall to punk rock
DH is here to de-generate
We are the last sons
Past generations
Left it to us, they resonate
If you've been hated
Felt underrated
This ones for you, we dedicate

[Verse 2: Duddy B]

So cool and deadly
We rock it steady
With the soul movin' medleys
So y'all get ready
For this next shit, eclectic
Calm and collected
We write songs that keep the whole world connected

And if you're ready for this brand new beginnings
And if you're sick of these same old shitty bands
You need something that brightens up the day plan
Kids, me and you got so much to say man
So much emotion
So much inspiration
So much devotion
With no hesitation
So if your listenin'
The definition of

[Chorus: Dirty J & Duddy B]

We are the last sons
We let the beat drop
We are the last sons
Past generations
Felt underrated

[Bridge: Duddy B]

Whoa, resonate
No time in my life for me to hesitate
We write these songs so we can resonate
The DH is here to generate
Dedicate these songs to all that can relate
No time in my life for me to hesitate
We write these songs so we can resonate

[Chorus: Dirty J & Duddy B]

We are the last sons
Past generations
We are the last sons
Past generations

If you've been hated
