

I Can't Be

Hakan Akkus

And all of these are kind to me,
I can't be everywhere.
I draw my fist, into the Earth.
Reached your core,
and grabbed it whole tight
And all of these are kind to me,
I can't be everywhere.
I draw my fist, into the Earth.
Reached your core,
and grabbed it whole tight
And all of these are kind to me,
I can't be everywhere.
I draw my fist, into the Earth.
Reached your core,
and grabbed it whole tight
