

Any Means Necessary

HammerFall

I won't pull the trigger
Just to see you die
No remedy to make me come alive I'm ticking like a time bomb (Need) no fuse, just guts and gore
(To) initiate the burning of the core I count down to zero, pull the trigger, no parole
No mercy, have mercy, no mercy on your soul Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary
I am not judgemental
A sinner nor a saint
'Cause either you're my best friend or you ain't Come gather here around me
Feel my breath under your skin
I'm deadly, only when I'm getting caught I count down to zero, I'm a soldier without soul
No mercy, have mercy, no mercy on your soul Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary I am born to kill - judge and condemn
I am born to win - slay and maim 'em
I am born to live - fight for glory
I am born to die Kill - win - live - die
Kill by any means necessary
Win by any means necessary
Live by any means necessary
Die by any means necessary
I am born to kill - judge and condemn
I am born to win - slay and maim 'em
I am born to live - fight for glory
I am born to die - memento mori
I am born to kill - judge and condemn
I am born to win - slay and maim 'em
I am born to live - fight for glory
I am born to die - memento mori...
