

Beautiful Dancer (feat. Charlie Wilson)

New Boyz

It's even more than beautiful, there is no metaphor that Can describe what my eyes see
So don't you take this personal what,
There's just one thing I came to see
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down for me
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down for me I hope I don't seem disrespectful, felt so
, what they can do,, and I can't seem to let go Gimme,

I make him a personal assistant, take him on the road,
On the beach, check him in the hotel,

It's even more than beautiful, there is no metaphor that
Can describe what my eyes see
So don't you take this personal what,
There's just one thing I came to see
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down,
bounce it up and down for me
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down for me You can bounce it up and down, stun it girl, around
She haven't made a sound she tired, lay her body down Slagging it out while I play music at her house
We chilling out, she giving lap dance on the couch Dancing and she feeling it, she, like she into it
She wanna make a movie well I guess I will be filming it Like she the type to get it shaking early morning waken bacon
She, where she, she offer then I take it

It's even more than beautiful, there is no metaphor that
Can describe what my eyes see
So don't you take this personal what,
There's just one thing I came to see
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down,
bounce it up and down for me
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down for me I know you were never used to laugh
But I swear, I swear your love was meant for me
You are so beautiful, you were made for me

And it won't be long, I'm gonna take you home with me It's even more than beautiful, there is no metaphor that

Can describe what my eyes see
So don't you take this personal what,

There's just one thing I came to see
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down,
bounce it up and down for me
So won't you bounce it up and down, bounce it up and down,
bounce it up and down for me.
