[Verse 1: Hotboii]

A gangster, that what everybody wanna be

Till they wake up to one of they partners on a tee

Pop the same Glock

Ratting on your man was never G

Streets never loved you so ain't no love for the street

I ain't never wanna loose either up or we eat

Through the mud it was you

They show me love now I'm clean

I forever love you but won't let love have me beat

Can't be fucked up with you I need her home gotta be

Told her if its gon be like this then we should be single

Ima look and find somebody else if I leave her

Whats up then I guess I'm single don't wanna mingle

Bye Felicia just need the route to all evil

The plug, he just hit my phone youngin let me feed you

The bands, we just gotta carry sand like the beach do

I'm talking cash do you understand? I'm bilingual

Chasing after chips in a can like a Pringle

Why you love that bitch? If I wan't could make her leave you

Flood the chop with sticks *

Hey hot I heard these niggas tryna be you yeah

Only one me can't be sequel yeah yeah

I just bought a Glock clip see through yeah

So you can see the bullets before they see you yeah yeah

Wherever you lack at these bullets meet you there

Brand new Glock 4.5 sing a melody

Fuck whoever doubted me I flood my mouth with trophies

I'm shitting on my old bitch especially

Run up these bands came from nothing so now we gotta ball
