

Better Than You Left Me

Mickey Guyton

You said goodbye
Words cold as ice
I was shaking
Watching you go
I couldn't breathe
No, I just couldn't see
That she's leaving
You're here all alone
It's funny what a little time does, baby I'm better than you left me
I'm better than I should be
Better than I was
When you walk out that door
I'm stronger than a woman
The one that you knew back then
So don't you think I'll take you back
Like every time before
No baby, I don't think you know me anymore
I'm better than you left me Now here you are Trying to win back my heart
And I bet you
Thought it'd be easy to do
But baby I've changed
Now you get a taste of standing
On the side where you lose
Ain't it funny what a little time does, baby I'm better than you left me
I'm better than I should be
Better than I was
When you walk out that door
I'm stronger than a woman
The one that you knew back then
So don't you think I'll take you back
Like every time before
No baby, I don't think you know me anymore
I'm better than you left me Now I love deeper
A little harder
I smile brighter I'm stronger than a woman
The one that you knew back then
So don't you think I'll take you back
Like every time before
No baby, I don't think you know me anymore
I'm better than you left me I'm better than you left me

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>