

Back Porch

Dierks Bentley

[Verse 1]

Ain't no line around the corner, no security
No velvet rope, no dress code, everybody's VIP
You can wear your hat, dance in your bare feet
No credit card, no roll of cash, just BYOB

[Chorus]

Woah oh oh, chilling on a back porch
Little hottie swinging up in the swings
Them good old boys picking six strings
Woah oh oh, leave your trouble at the door
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, let's party on a back porch
(Chilling on the back porch, oh yeah
Chilling on the back porch, oh yeah)

[Verse 2]

Got a tin roof on the top just in case it rains
Got a kiddy pool off the deck for those hot as hell days
Got beer on ice, all day all night
Now if that sounds like something you like come on

[Chorus][x2]

[Outro]

On a back porch
Little hottie swinging up in the swings
Them good old boys picking six strings
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, so let's party on a back porch
See ya on the back porch
