

Be Good to Me

Jacob Banks & Seinabo Sey

Oh, please be good to me
Oh save my soul and lead me home
I've been running for far too long
Oh, please be good to me Be good to me, good to me
Be good to me, good to me My hands are sore carrying promises
Another war that I've lost
My time is yours, waste it carefully
You hit and run, do it gracefully Oh, please be good to me
Oh save my soul and lead me home
I've been running for far too long
Oh, please be good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
My stupid heart is always a casualty
It wants to be loved, it hates the vacancy
My time is yours, waste it carefully
You hit and run, do it gracefully Oh, please be good to me
Oh save my soul and lead me home
I've been running for far too long
Oh, please be good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Woah, woah
Be good to me
Ohh Oh
Be good to me
It's all I'm asking from you
You know I'm counting on you
To lead me to nirvana Be good to me
It's all I'm asking from you
You know I'm counting on you
Be good to me
Be good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
Be good, good to me
Be good to me, good to me
