

Bad Guy

Cal Scruby

I live life through a polarizing lens
When I feel the love, they hate again
Gotta make ends and make amends
Pay cash when I'm payin' for my sins
Can you bury me alive inside a Benz?
I'ma need four seats I brought my friends
And we built this shit, if it all fall down
They would all take a charge in my defence
That's why I'm talkin' fast inside the Sprinter van
Methamphetamine addicted man
Speedin' Leo catch me if you can
Slowing down and stopping not the plan
Thought I had it mapped like I'm Magellan
Makin' moves inside the cerebellum
If you know the secret never tell 'em
Fuck the motherfuckers, they get jealous
Why you buy the bullshit they been sellin'?
Purple in the chalice, Donatella
You get mad at me for reaching goals
I get mad at you for reaching ceilings
Talking to me like I'm not a human
Like I never felt the way you feelin'

I guess if I gotta play the villain

I'ma sign a deal and make a killin'

Whoa, guess I gotta be the bad guy

Bitch you ain't Denzel, you ain't 'bout that life

I be on this side, you be on that side

Don't cross that line, don't cross that line

Thinkin' back, way back, from the start of it

Before I ever wrote a song and recorded it

I remember where I was when I thought of it

I was in the same race you've been caught up in

Had lil drug money and an Ottoman

I drinkin' cheap liquor, smokin' Parliaments

Ever since then I've been goin' harder than '06 Dwyane Wade

'06 Dwayne Carter shit, damn

I wanted to quit thank God I did not

I had to learn how to handle shit top

Let them mourn more in a Phantom hip hop

You a little boy, that shit's a KIDZ BOP (Huh?)

Chill for a minute, I did just that and you still don't get it

I admit it I was lookin' for a deal, six figures

Could've got me for a steal but the didn't

Now I got no time when the phone ring

'Cept when it's big bro with the OGs

Lotta people tell people that they know me
Where were you when I was living off 14th?
Went way back then kept it lowkey
Know no TO, put in OT
I'ma young Pete Rose with the hits
Got it like this, I'm the only one that's putting money on my own team

Whoa, guess I gotta be the bad guy
Bitch you ain't Denzel, you ain't 'bout that life
I be on this side, you be on that side
Don't cross that line, don't cross that line

Guess I gotta be the bad buy
Bitch you ain't Denzel, you ain't 'bout that life
I be on this side, you be on that side
Don't cross that line, don't cross that line
