No Goodbyes

Dua Lipa

[Verse 1] Maybe one day, I can see you We can smile and wave, and it'll be okay Maybe one day, it'll be cool We could just be friends without the complications that it brings When we start saying things Yeah, I hurt you, and you hurt me Yeah, we did some things that we can never take back And we tried hard just to fix it But we broke it more And so, I guess some things are not meant to last Is it too much to ask?

[Chorus]

For tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes (No goodbyes) Just for tonight Pretend that it's all alright (All alright) Why don't we hold each other, use each other, whisper pretty lies? Just for tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes (No goodbyes)

> [Post-Chorus] No goodbyes No goodbyes No goodbyes, eh

> > [Verse 2]

In a dark room We don't have to see the light of truth between me and you We can stay blind in the meantime Let our bodies say what we can never seem to communicate Even though it's too late

[Chorus]

For tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes (No goodbyes) Just for tonight Pretend that it's all alright (All alright) Why don't we hold each other, use each other, whisper pretty lies? Just for tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes (No goodbyes)

> [Post-Chorus] No goodbyes No goodbyes No goodbyes, eh No goodbyes (no goodbyes) No goodbyes (no goodbyes) No goodbyes, eh

[Bridge] Maybe one day, I'll see you Just smile and wave and be okay

[Chorus] For tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes For tonight Pretend that it's all alright (All alright) Why don't we hold each other, use each other, whisper pretty lies? Just for tonight Let's love like there's no goodbyes (No goodbyes)

> [Outro] No goodbyes No goodbyes No goodbyes, eh No goodbyes No goodbyes No goodbyes, eh
