

Brave Enough (feat. Christina Perri)

Lindsey Stirling

There's something I should have said
I was too afraid
It just was so hard to let you know
Now it's all too late What we have is beautiful
I didn't want to wreck it all
Every day I think about the truth I wish I was
I wish I was
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough to love you I wish I was
I wish I was
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough, brave enough
Brave enough to love you
You stripped away the walls I built
But no one ever has
The hardest parts we'll never know
If we were meant to last What we have is beautiful
I didn't want to wreck it all
Every day I think about the truth I wish I was
I wish I was
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough to love you I wish I was
I wish I was
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough, brave enough
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough to love you
I wish I was
I wish I was
Brave enough to love you
Brave enough, brave enough
Brave enough to love you
