

To Be Yours

Phonte

My baby is lonely on this night. She lays in bed all alone (ooo).I stayed At the bar by myself, mister won't you play me a song. No words for the Pain inside my heart, but I heard what he played and I say move on. I say
Move on. Cause if love can come to me in a song and set me free; then maybe
We can truly love again (ahhh). And I'll be yours. I'll be yours. To be Yours. I'll be yours...
