

Rolling Stone

Niykee Heaton

I'm feeling kinda lonesome
Darlin why you taking so long?
Uh oh, uh oh, ooh
I'm feeling kinda broken
Can't blame God for this one
I won't, I won't, I won't Let me be your lullaby, playing in your head, this song every night
Give me ten minutes, let me bare my soul
I've seen this all before, seems like a lifetime ago
What's it all, what's it all worth? I don't wanna be alive if it doesn't feel like this right now, feeling right now
I'm not afraid to die, if you're by my side it's all right now, feeling right now
Be there when I'm alone
Love me even though I'm a motherfuckin' rolling stone
Carry me home, and I'll love you, I won't, I won't go
Some shit I gotta work on
I just hope that you won't move on
Uh oh, uh oh, ooh
I'm beggin baby hold on
I'll call you tonight when I'm alone
Alone, alone, ooh Let me be your lullaby, playing in your head, this song every night
Give me ten minutes, let me bare my soul
I've seen this all before, seems like a lifetime ago
What's it all, what's it all worth? I don't wanna be alive if it doesn't feel like this right now,
feeling right now
I'm not afraid to die, if you're by my side it's all right now, feeling right now
Be there when I'm alone
Love me even though I'm a motherfuckin' rolling stone
Carry me home, and I'll love you, I won't, I won't go
I won't, I won't go
Tell me that you want me, I'll stay
Tell me that you love me, I won't go away. I won't, I won't go away
Tell me that you want me, I'll stay
Tell me that you love me, I won't go away. I won't, I won't go away Oh no... I won't, I won't go...
