

Listen to Me

Bob Moses

Like the setting sun
I will rise again
When the morning comes
I've a heart to mend

You never listened to me anyway
You never listened to me anyway

Words I wish I'd said
Now we've come undone
Playing in my head
Blame the smoking gun

You never listened to me anyway
You never listened to me anyway

Like the setting sun
I will rise again
When the morning comes
I've heart to mend
Words I wish I'd said
Now we've come undone
Playing in my head
Blame the smoking gun

You never listened to me anyway
You never listened to me anyway
