

The Way (feat. Chance the Rapper)

Kehlani

You so damn important
Everything you do shows me you know it
Behind it all you are the motive
Don't tell you enough, but baby I'll show it, show it
He say the king where he come from
Take a young queen just to know one
So, baby, I'mma drive it like it's stolen
I'mma fix it like it's broken
We could catch a flight out to London
Go to the mall, spend a lump sum
They could try to catch up to us
But they're too busy making assumptions
Boy, you know all I do
Is stay up all night losing sleep over you
All I do
Is drive myself crazy thinkin' 'bout my baby
It's the way you walk, the way you talk, babe
It's the way you love, the way you fuck, the way
It's the way you are, you're a star, babe
It's the way you, it's the way you
You got my mind gon trippin
You know i love these women
But you make me feel, different
Just had your love
Still mess with those, still kiss it slow
Give me some more
She know im the king where i come from
She know she the king she dont want one
Now she gotta nigga open
Make me feel like i was chosen
Just when my heart had got frozen
She open the door and she strolled in
She got the key and she closed it
She got with me now im focused girl you know
All i do, all i do is stay up all night, losing sleep over you all i do, is drive myself crazy thinking bout my baby
Its the way you walk, the way you talk babe
Its the way you love, the way you fuck babe
Its the way you are, your a star babe
Its the way you, its the way you
This thing we got is crazy
Only thing I know is you're my baby
Forever down, I am your lady
Always for sure, never a maybe
Never met someone who spoke my language
Baby girl i swear dont try to play it
You the type of nigga make me lane switch
Im the type of nigga how you raining

Give me your heart and I hold it
(Hold it)
Show me your soul and I'll mould it
Baby boy, you gotta be the dopest
Gotta be to fuck with the coldest
Boy i know all i do
(All i do is think)
Is stay up all night losing sleep over you
All i do, drive myself crazy, thinkin bout my baby
Its the way you walk, the way you talk babe
Its the way you love, the way you fuck babe
Its the way you are, your a star babe
Its the way you, its the way you
