

If You Ever Get Lonely

Love and Theft

Thanks for callin'
It's so good to hear your voice
But you keep breakin' up
In all the static and the noise
But I keep listenin'
'Cause I never had a choice when it came to you I'd love to see you
If you're ever out this way
You sound happy
Guess things are working out ok
And I'm getting better
At putting one foot in front of the other And I know that California ain't to blame
And I know there's tons of people in LA
But if you ever get lonely
And you miss me
If you need someone to listen
Even if it's only
The sound of someone's voice who loves you
That you need to hear
You know where to find me
If you ever get lonely It sounds like a good time
Going down at the other end
You got a new love, got a new life
A whole new set of friends
But are you listenin'?
Do you expect me to pretend
That I don't love you
I don't love you
If you ever get lonely
And you miss me
If you need someone to listen
Even if it's only
The sound of someone's voice who loves you
That you need to hear
You know where to find me
If you ever get lonely Were you ever really listening?
Were you ever really there? If you ever get lonely
And you miss me
If you need someone to listen
Even if it's only
The sound of someone's voice who loves you
That you need to hear
You know where to find me

If you ever get lonely
If you ever get lonely
