

Venice Bitch

Lana Del Rey

Fear fun, fear love
Fresh out of fucks, forever
Tryin' to be stronger for you
Ice cream, ice queen
I dream in jeans and leather
Life's dream I'm sweet for you Oh god, miss you on my lips
It's me, your little Venice bitch
On the [?] with the neighborhood kids
Callin' out, bang bang, kiss kiss You're in the yard, I light the fire
And as the summer fades away
Nothing gold can stay
You write, I tour, we make it work
You're beautiful and I'm insane
We're American-made
Give me Hallmark
One dream, one life, one lover
Make me happy and blue
[?]
No hype under our covers
It's just me and you Oh god, miss you on my lips
It's me, your little Venice bitch
On the [?] with the neighborhood kids
Callin' out, bang bang, kiss kiss You're in the yard, I like the fire
And as the summer fades away
Nothing gold can stay
You write, I tour, we make it work
You're beautiful and I'm insane
We're American-made
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Sending off bang bang, kiss kiss
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Sending off bang bang, kiss kiss Oh god, want you on my lips (I do, I do)
It's me, your little Venice bitch
[?] with the neighborhood kids
Sending off bang bang, kiss kiss Yeah, yeah, yeah
Sending off bang bang, kiss kiss
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Sending off bang bang, kiss kiss back in town now Oh, oh, oh, oh, whatever
Anything, forever
Oh, oh, oh, oh, whatever
Anything, forever
