

I Give In

Bobby Caldwell

I once had a love that I don't talk about
She cheated on me and broke my heart
And that's why I've resisted your kiss for so long
But you're wearing me down and I can't go on
Each time you touch me
The feeling's so strong
*Can't hold back any more
Never felt this before
I've been captured so let love begin
I'll do all that I can
Put your heart in my hands
I am your prisoner, baby you win
Maybe this time I'll get it right
Untie my hands, I won't put up a fight
I surrender completely to you
Girl I give in
I trusted someone I don't want to think about
And I swore I'd never give my love again
But I'm losing the grip that I had on my heart
And forgetting the memories that tore me apart
Help me remember
Just where to start
Repeat *I give in to love
I'm gonna try
All that I need are the wings to fly
Take my heart
Show me the light
I don't wanna spend another lonely night
Repeat *
