Beer Can't Fix (feat. Jon Pardi)

Thomas Rhett

You're all alone at a party
You want to dance with somebody
But you ain't got a clue how to ask
You and your girl had a fight
And now she's saying goodbye
She ran upstairs and packed her bagsIt could be raining' on your perfect vacation
You could be stressed about your work situation
Ain't gotta listen to me but all I'm sayin'Ain't nothin' that a beer can't fix
Ain't no pain it can't wash away
From the moment that it hits your lips
Makes those clouds look a little less grey
Oh you could be lonely, or heartbroken
Or hungover from the night before
Turn that frown into a smile real quick
There ain't nothin' that a beer can't fixYou're on a lake and you're fishin'
It's hot and all that you're gettin'
Is a little nibble here and there
You're sitin' watchin' your team
Losin' that championship ring
And you're feelin' like life ain't fairIt could be raining' on your perfect vacation
You could be stressed about your work situation
Ain't nothin' that a beer can't fix
Ain't no pain it can't wash away
From the moment that it hits your lips
Makes those clouds look a little less grey
Oh you could be lonely, heartbroken
Or hungover from the night before
Turn that frown into a smile real quick
There ain't nothin' that a beer can't fixIt could be raining' on your perfect vacation
You could be stressed about your work situation
Ain't gotta save it for no special occasion
Ain't nothin' that a beer can't fix
Ain't no pain it can't wash away, no
From the moment that it hits your lips
Makes those clouds look a little less greyOoh you could be lonely (Lonely)
Heartbroken (Heartbroken)
Or hungover from the night before
Turn that frown into a smile real quick
It might take one or it might take six
Drank it down, it'll do the trick
There ain't nothin' that a beer can't fix
