

Reverse Skydiving (feat. Anabel Englund)

Hot Natured

Flying, climbing
This is what I feel when I'm reverse skydiving
Neptune, shining
Frying all the elements as they're combining
Rewind, timing
This be the contract for sky I'll be signing
No concern for wining or dining
Wind so blue that it might be blinding
All that I know is I won't be minding
You don't have to jump to fly with me
You don't have to jump to fly with me
You don't have to jump to fly with me
You don't have to jump to fly with me
Flying, climbing
Giving me a smile, that's the inverse of crying
Upwards, mining
My dress seems like a ruby and the stars be aligning
Sky that's shining
Angles that I'm turning on continue refining
No concern for eyes that are prying
Spell my name with lighting and keep rewinding
All that I know is I won't be minding
Flying, climbing
This is what I feel when I'm reverse skydiving
Neptune, shining
Frying all the elements as they're combining
Rewind, timing
This be the contract for sky I'll be signing
No concern for wining or dining
Wind so blue that it might be blinding
All that I know is I won't be minding
This is what I feel when I'm reverse skydiving
You don't have to jump to fly with me
You don't have to jump to fly with me
