

bad motives (feat. Medisin)

nobigdyl.

[Verse 1: nobigdyl.]

(Yeah)

You think that I practice 'cause I preach it

Really, I don't mean it that's the secret

I just let you see it, I don't seek it (I don't)

I just hope TMZ do not leak it

You see it, I was a reject, like Vietnam

I was fleeing bombs

Running from the dark like Jerry upon seeing Tom

You look like a day that remind me that spring coming

In the middle of the winter it's 60 degrees sunny

We listen to bees, humming birds float in the breeze, honey

You made me a fiend running towards infinite peace

Bloodied my feet

Try to quiet the tension it keeps comin'

Reflection lookin' at me, and it's mean muggin'

'Cause I didn't really mean it that's the secret

I just stole your heart, didn't wanna keep it

I was raised a heathen with hyenas

I'm sorry, but there's no way you'll believe it

[Chorus: Medisin, nobigdyl.]

Guess I'm just the good guy, bad motives

Caught me in the low tide, and I'm floatin' away

Tryna keep up my stride, but I can't

Look away from your eyes I won't last

Fell in love with the notion that my heart was your's

And that you were mine

Guess I was never the good guy

Fell in love with the notion, no, notion

Guess I was never the good guy

[Verse 2: nobigdyl.]

(Yeah)

I'm so green with envy I'm Invader Zim

She ask me why I act a monkey at the H&M

Good guys come in last

I was laughed at for my passion in the back of class

That's all in the past

Loaded up my luggage

Trust I didn't pack

Lust all in my bag

Now I'm in my bag

Once I got my FAFSA

There's no looking back
They think I'm a pastor but my motives bad

[Chorus: Medisin, nobigdyl.]

Guess I'm just the good guy, bad motives
Caught me in the low tide, and I'm floatin' away
Tryna keep up my stride, but I can't
Look away from your eyes I won't last
Fell in love with the notion that my heart was your's

And that you were mine
Guess I was never the good guy
Fell in love with the notion, no, notion
Guess I was never the good guy

[Outro: nobigdyl.]

'Cause I didn't really mean it that's the secret
I just stole your heart, didn't wanna keep it
I was raised a heathen with hyenas
I'm sorry, but there's no way you'll believe it
