

Not Good at Not

Morgan Wallen

Maybe it's a bad girl underneath that sweet smile
Like a peak of black lace that nobody but me sees
And just a trace of all the possibilities
Maybe it's the quarter moon, maybe it's the quarter wine
And we haven't even touched yet, baby don't need it
Everything you're doing, girl, is my weakness I'm not good at not kissing again
When you're leaning it all in a little closer
I'm not good at not getting sidetracked
When your tank top's stretched, slipping off of your shoulder
Whoa, girl, I try to be
But I ain't that tough, I'm not good at not
Falling in love, falling in love
I'm falling in love
You know what to do girl, and you know what it does to me
When you turn on that song and turn the lights down
Baby I'm gone before the [?]
Dancing in slow motion with my hands on your hips
Now you got me going right where I can't resist I'm not good at not kissing again
When you're leaning it all in a little closer
I'm not good at not getting sidetracked
When your tank top's stretched, slipping off of your shoulder
Whoa, girl, I try to be
But I ain't that tough, I'm not good at not
Falling in love, falling in love
I'm falling in love Can't tell you no, can't say goodbye
Can't hold a little back even if I try
'Cause when I look in your eyes...
I'm not good at not kissing again
When you're leaning it all in a little closer
I'm not good at not getting sidetracked
When your tank top's stretched, slipping off of your shoulder
Whoa, girl, I try to be
But I ain't that tough, I'm not good at not
Falling in love, falling in love
I'm falling in love
Not good at not falling in love, I'm falling in love
I'm falling in love
I'm not good at not falling
I'm not good at not falling in love
I'm not good at not falling
Falling in love, falling in love
