

Field Fulla Hillbillies

Justin Moore

They decided to take a break from the city
Took a little ride down 95
Pulled off on a little county road
Hit the Cracker Barrel home cookin' ya know
Had to get a taste of the real world
Bought a camo shirt from the gift shop girl
Hit a gravel road not far from there
A little nature trip just looking for deer
Grandma was sittin' in the backseat
Saw a little commotion going on
She said try not to stare but look over there Lord I swear
That's a field fulla hillbillies
A bunch of trucks jacked up kicked back
Hanging out like chill billies
Little girls snuggled up real close
Ya know giving 'em the thrill billies
That right there's the real thing
A buncha rednecks in the country
Always have been always will be
A buncha hillbillies
Hillbillies
So they watched a little while sitting there in the car
Pretty soon they started pulling out Mason jars
Filling up little red cups of plastic
Like a scene outta National Geographic
The sun was going down so they lit a fire
The party had some kinda cave man desire
The music they were playing out across that field
Had the bottom end thumping on the windshield
They know how to make it look fun
Kinda makes you wish you were one
Right there kids that's how it is life in the sticks
That's a field fulla hillbillies
A bunch of trucks jacked up kicked back
Hanging out like chill billies
Little girls snuggled up real close
Ya know giving 'em the thrill billies
That right there's the real thing
A buncha rednecks in the country
Always have been always will be
A buncha hillbillies
Hillbillies
Son of a gun they make it look fun

Oh there ain't nothin' like
