

Stardog Champion

Mother Love Bone

Ah, ah, ah... oh yes.
San Francisco, where the flowers bloom in spring.
I said fade to winter and see what disease brings.
Augustino, with his eyes like a shinning sea.
I said he's half a shadow... god don't let that be me. I'm a Stardog Champion.
I'm a Stardog Champion. West Virginia, that where my father lies.
He was a war time hero,
The kind that money buys.
Diamond bracelet for my mommy's memory.
I said that's all she wrote for, that's all she wrote for me, yeah. I'm a Stardog Champion.
I'm a Stardog Champion.
That's right.
And the children, they used to sing of love
With the grace from the lord above.
I said the children, they used to sing out loud.
Sing it loud...
Good god, I'm a Stardog Champion.
I'm a Stardog Champion.
I'm a Stardog, baby
And I ain't gonna let you down, yeah
Ain't gonna let you down.
I'll never let you down...
Let the children sing
Nah nah nah nah
Nah nah nah nah
Nah nah nahnahnahnahnowah...

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>