

Champagne

Niykee Heaton

Numb the pain
(Numb the pain)
Late nights, waiting
Empty, fading I want you again
I want to again
I'm far from sober
Won't hold me over I can pretend, I can pretend
If I get this just right
I could lay here all night
Is it too much?
One cup
Tryna, fill up
The spaces you left in me I got all these brand new addictions
I'm bound to, I'm bound to
Anything that, stops me from thinking
About you, about you, uuuu-uh I got champagne for the pain
Blackout all the memories
Runnin' through my veins
I don't really wanna feel anything
Tryin' to escape
I'm my only enemy
Drinks up, keep 'em laced I don't really wanna feel anything
I got champagne for the pain
Blackout all the memories
Runnin' through my veins
I don't really wanna feel anything
Tryin' to escape
I'm my only enemy
Drinks up, keep 'em laced
I don't really wanna feel anything (anything, anything...) I don't really wanna feel anything (anything, anything...) Touch me, and I'm
Back to the first time
Chasing your high
Tracing the lines
You left me, stranded Broken, abandoned
Live for the high
I live for your fight
If I get this just right
(If I get this just right) I could lay here all night
(I could lay here all night) Is it too late? I'm so afraid
Poison, I need a drink
To spite you, will you

Ravage me?
I got all these, brand new addictions (brand new addictions)
I'm bound to, I'm bound to
(Bound to) Anything that, stops me from thinking (oh it stops you)
About you, about you, uuuu-uh I got champagne for the pain Blackout all the memories (uuuu-uh)
Tryin' to escape I'm my only enemy
I don't really wanna feel anything I got champagne for the pain Blackout all the memories (I got)
Runnin' through my veins
Tryin' to escape
I'm my only enemy
(Anything, anything...) Nu-nu-nu-numb the pain
Nu-nu-numb the pain
I don't really wanna feel anything Racin' through my mind and I think it's the last time
Lips as sweet as wine, so I drink just to pass time
Make me come alive, take me high, and I can't lie
I just wanna hide the pain I got champagne for the pain
Runnin' through my veins
(Runnin' through my veins) I don't really wanna feel anything
Tryin' to escape
I'm my only enemy
I got champagne for the pain
Runnin' through my veins
I don't really wanna feel anything
Tryin' to escape
I'm my only enemy
I don't really wanna feel anything Bring on the champagne
So I can numb the pain, numb the pain
Bring on the champagne
So I can numb the pain, numb the pain
