

Helpless / Bloodlines, Pt. II

Sir Sly

[Verse 1: "Helpless"]

It's not that I'm lost, I know exactly where I am
I'm in the middle of a mess that I don't understand
Why does it feel like the world's stealing every single thing that I have?
I only got the air in my chest and even that won't last

[Chorus 1]

What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do if I lose you?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do?
I feel helpless
I feel helpless
I feel helpless
I feel helpless

[Verse 2]

I go home and I'm naked as the day I was born
It's like a ghost town, empty save the windows and doors
Why does it feel like the world's stealing every single thing that I have?
If even home don't feel like home then I know it's the end

[Chorus 2]

So, what do I do here?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do if I lose you?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do?
I feel helpless
I feel helpless
I feel helpless
I feel helpless

[Bridge]

What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do if I lose you?
What do I do here?

What do I do here?
What'll I do?
I feel helpless
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do if I lose you?
What do I do here?
What do I do here?
What'll I do?

[Verse 3: "Bloodlines Pt. II"]
Everything I know is finally gone
The things I had, the ones I love
Again, again
All the words that I had once believed
I'm not sure we'll ever meet
Again, again

Waiting on your bloodlines
Waiting on your bloodlines again
How could you make me wait?
Draw a picture with your bloodlines
Picture with your bloodlines
A thousand words
Then escape
