

Lovers + Strangers

Starley

Wrote another text that I'll never send
Oh I wanna say so many things
Like you've been?on?my mindI hope?you're doing fine
Oh I wanna say?but I don'tUsed to know you better than I know myself
Than I know myself
You look familiar but it's clear
You're someone else
Now you're someone elseLovers become strangers quick as they became lovers
Fast as lightning strikes it's feeling like thunder
I know that it's the end and yet I still wonder why we
Why we gotta be strangers
Why we gotta be strangers
Why we gotta be strangersTry not to think about 'cause it's getting late
And I, I hate the fact that it's all a waste
You didn't break my heart
We just fell apart
Try not to think about you and I, I, I, yeahUsed to know you better than I know myself
Than I know myself
You look familiar but it's clear
You're someone else
Now you're someone elseLovers become strangers quick as they became lovers
Fast as lightning strikes it's feeling like thunder
I know that it's the end and yet I still wonder why we
Why we gotta be strangers
Why we gotta be strangers
Why we gotta be strangersLovers become strangers quick as they became lovers
Fast as lightning strikes it's feeling like thunder
I know that it's the end and yet I still wonder why we
Why we gotta be strangersLovers become strangers quick as they became lovers
Fast as lightning strikes it's feeling like thunder
I know that it's the end and yet I still wonder why we
Why we gotta be strangers
