This modern roaming empire underneath Caligula
Close your eyes envision it

Welcome citizen, you can pay your penance to the Emperor now or get put with the prisoners
Are you listenin'?
Do what you are told or what you are told will be done to you, simple wisdom it
City sprawlin' with soldiers on war horses
With chest armor armed forces for official employers
Roman source patrol off on the dogs roaming remorseless
'Cause job shortage makes some rob to recoup losses
Full equipped with gods on high cliffs
Bombs from drone ships, it's lightning from Zeus' fist 18 A-list VIP as it gets
'Cause pirate computer mix worth a trillion bits
2016, rulers with big dreams
One world, one Roman government, one currency
One slave populace from one goddess' ovaries
One love motherfucker and it ain't for you or me
Totalitarian, barbarian
Motherfucker this is Rome say the name again
You got a favorite sin? Go commit it then
Livin' ain't safe in Rome, but we don't give a shit (This is Rome)
