

Serves You Right

Lionel Richie

La, da, da, da,
Oooh, Oh
You and I were so in love
You were all I was thinkin' of
There was so much magic in your eyes
Then one day you said we were through You said you found somebody new
And then you turned and you walked right out the door
Baby I told you his love wasn't true
You didn't hear me, so now I say these words to you Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Now you say you're sorry
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
baby
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Now you see who's sorry now
Oooh, oh, oh
I remember you standin' there, sayin' to me you didn't care
And I was begging baby, please don't go
Now you're crying, telling me what went wrong
Girl you stayed away too long,
Can't you see I've got you off my mind
Thinkinbout the pain that you put me through
I can't help you-because it feels good telling you Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Now you say you're sorry
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
baby
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Now you see who's sorry now
Oooh, oh, oh See mama, what I'm tryin'to say to you is that I'm, you know, I love ya, but ya, yaa hurt me so bad, I can't take it no more girl,
I just can't take it, no... Hell No
No! No, No, I don't wanna hear it, don't say it anymore, don't talk no more, I'm tired of you're lyin', I'm tired of your cryin' girl, tell me... don't tell me. Thinkin' 'bout the pain that you put me through,
I can't help you-because it feels good telling you Serves you right for sayin' good-bye.
Now you say you're sorry.
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye.
baby.
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye.

Now you see who's sorry now.
Ooh, Yeah Givin' up on your love girl
Never gonna believe you anymore,
'Cause all you wanna do is hurt me, and treat me bad
Feels good telling you Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Girl, I just don't need you
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
All you do is use my love,
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Can't let you hurt me anymore
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Don't say you're sorry baby
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
Cause your words don't mean a thing
Serves you right for sayin' good-bye
It's you who's sorry now
